Prepare yourself for bridging into the General Nurse Training

The Asia Pacific Institute of Applied Social, Economic and Technical Studies (APIASETS) is able to help you upgrade yourself to a General Nurse. This bridging program is for a period of six (6) months. It comprises of theoretical work, research academic writing and presentation skills followed by relevant practices to help you prepare for high tertiary level training in nursing. You can enrol for morning or afternoon sessions depending on your work commitments. You can only attend classes according to your time table which we will amicably agree depending on your availability from work and other commitments.

These units will meet the requirement of Bridging of the CHW qualification to Diploma in General Nursing.

- Fundamentals of Nursing 1
- Anatomy and Physiology
- Context of Nursing
- Obstetrics 2
- Pharmacology & Mathematics in Nursing 1
- Fundamentals Skills for Nursing Practice 2
- Academic Writing Skills
- And clinical competencies as required

This program will prepare you to go straight into the second semester of year two of the three years Diploma in General Nursing program. The cost of this bridging Program is K4,000. You can pay 50% upfront and the balance through pay deduction. After completing the Bridging program, you will be eligible to take up the Diploma in General Nurse Training which will be for only one and a half years (or three semester) to complete for the program. Our lecturers and qualified trainers with a lot of field and clinical experiences will guide and help you master the preparatory stages from CHW to General Nurse training quickly.
